Cub Scouts Entertain at Senior Luncheon

Cub Scouts from St. Mary's School entertained the senior parishioners with a story told through handmade puppets.

The delicious Thanks-giving lunch was prepared by Chef John Kelly, assisted by his son Jay, and served by the CYO members, sporting the new ICCCW aprons stitched by Kay Papenfuss.

Janine Burton, Family Commission Chair, and her crew created a festive fall atmosphere for the luncheon in the FLC on November 7.

Bring Baby Gifts for the Christmas Party

Please note that the ICCCW Christmas party has been moved to the 14th since the regular meeting date was so close to Christmas. Bring unwrapped baby items to be given to the Caring Choices and Hope Pregnancy Center.

Because this meeting is a pot luck dinner, we're starting at 6 PM. Bring a dish and good Christmas cheer to share with our sisters in Christ.

If you have a Secret Santa, this is the party to reveal yourself with a gift and to get a new Secret Santa if you'd like.
