Record number attends Trunk or Treat

Over 150 ghosts, goblins, witches, and other costumed children and their parents attended Trunk or Treat October 24.

No one's spirit seemed to be damped by the much-needed rain that kept everyone indoors. The children played games and were treated to warm soup and sandwiches before the parade and judging of costumes.

An early respite from the rain allowed the trunks to be judged, and a few brave souls had time to venture through the CYO's scary tunnel.

The ICCCW thanks the members of CYO and Toni Morgan for all their help with Trunk or Treat and the Senior Luncheon November 7.

Matthew Kenney to give update on Chiapas Mission

Be sure to attend the ICCCW meeting November 16 to hear about our parish mission in Chiapas from Dr. Matthew Kenney. Several parishioners have recently returned from a medical trip to Chiapas.

Remember, all women of Immaculate Conception are members of ICCCW. Please join us for fellowship with your sisters in Christ.
