Eighteen Honored at Angels among Us

Ann Doherty accepts her well-deserved angel from Nancy Poll, president of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. Eighteen hard-working ladies were honored with angels for their many contributions to Immaculate Conception.

The second annual presentation was held at FLC on August 14.

There are still many angels who have not yet been honored. Remember to nominate the angel you know next year.

Camp Rainbow topic for September meeting

Diane Miner, co-founder of Clarksville's Camp Rainbow, will be our guest speaker at the September ICCCW meeting. Camp Rainbow started in 1983 and provides a memorable camp experience for seriously ill children every summer at LBL. Camp Rainbow is affiliated with Clarksville Dream Factory and Bikers Who Care, and Diane and her family have been a major force in facilitating the great work done by these organizations for special children in our community. This is a not-to-be-missed opportunity to learn more about Camp Rainbow and all the great experiences that have been provided to children whose lives are limited by serious health problems. Please join us!

Pete Reed to Speak at NDCCW meeting in Dover
